

מְקוֹם תּוֹרָה

Mekom Torah
Community Jewish Learning

How come they never told us this stuff was in the Bible?!
- quote from a current Mekom Torah High School student

JOIN THE MEKOM TORAH HIGH SCHOOL PROGRAM

EXPLORE AND EXPERIENCE WHAT IT MEANS TO BE JEWISH – HERE, NOW, IN REAL LIFE.

Who: The 2009-2010 High School Program is for 8th, 9th, and 10th graders.

When: All classes meet on Sundays, 4:00-6:00 p.m.
There will be about 20 meeting dates from September, 2009 to June, 2010.
Calendar details will be available in August.

Where: Classes alternate by semester between Congregation Ohev Shalom in Wallingford, PA, and Congregation Beth Israel in Media, PA.

What does Judaism mean to us,
the newest owners of the oldest tradition?

THE MEKOM TORAH HIGH SCHOOL PROGRAM IS FOR:

- * people who like to ask hard questions and explore honest answers.
- * people who care about other people, and about their own impact on the world.
- * people who like being Jewish and want to have fun with other people who like being Jewish.
- * people who would like to know more about Jewish music, Jewish movies, Jewish books.
- * people who are curious about Jewish history.
- * people who want to know the grown-up version of Judaism.

Mekom Torah is

- a collaborative project of RRC, Reconstructionist Congregation Beth Israel of Media, PA, and Conservative Congregation Ohev Shalom of Wallingford, PA.
- funded in part by the Jewish Federation of Greater Philadelphia – Kehillah of Delaware County.

Contact Rabbi Helen Plotkin by email: helen@mekomtorah.com or by phone: 610-368-4065

<http://www.mekomtorah.org>

TO REGISTER FOR THE MEKOM TORAH HIGH SCHOOL PROGRAM

Please let us know your contact information, by email, or at the postal address below, or using the online registration form at <http://mekomtorah.org>.

Please include your child's name and grade in regular school as of Sept, 2009.
We prefer to communicate by email, so we would appreciate that information as well.

Tuition for September 2009 through May 2010: $475

Additional contributions are tax deductible, and gratefully accepted.

Scholarships are available. Please contact Rabbi Helen Plotkin or Rabbi Linda Potemken or Rabbi Jeremy Gerber if finances are a concern.

Checks should be made payable to "RRC" with "Mekom Torah" on the memo line.

Please deliver checks and registration information to: Mekom Torah
P.O. Box 178
Swarthmore, PA 19081

Mekom Torah is

- a collaborative project of RRC, Reconstructionist Congregation Beth Israel of Media, PA, and Conservative Congregation Ohev Shalom of Wallingford, PA.
- funded in part by the Jewish Federation of Greater Philadelphia – Kehillah of Delaware County.

Contact Rabbi Helen Plotkin by email: helen@mekomtorah.com or by phone: 610-368-4065

<http://www.mekomtorah.org>